The Children's Aid Society

des comtés unis de | of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry

The Children's Aid Society of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry is committed to becoming allies with First Nations, Inuit and Métis communities; those of African-Canadian/Black heritage; other racially marginalized and LGBTQ2S+ persons, through our Truth and Reconciliation commitments, our ongoing 'Diversity, Equity and Inclusivity' work and anti-racism/anti-oppression education.

Are you interested in being a member of our Board of Directors?

The Children's Aid Society of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry provides child welfare services in Cornwall and SD&G and is governed by a Board of ten volunteers. Board members are expected to attend monthly meetings of the Board as well as regular committee meetings. Board meetings are held the second Wednesday of each month from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Committee meetings are usually held over the lunch hour. All meetings are currently being held virtually. Board members are volunteers and are not paid for their services.

Preference will be given to applicants who identify as First Nations, Inuit and Métis; African Canadian/Black heritage; or other racially marginalized persons. Furthermore, we encourage applications without regard to religion, sex, marital/family status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age (however, Board members must be at least 18 years of age) or disability. We are committed to providing a barrier-free environment and accommodations are available upon request for candidates taking part in all aspects of the selection process.

Board members will be selected according to their skill, experience and personal qualities. The Children's Aid Society of SD&G is committed to building a diverse Board that is representative of the communities we serve.

Individuals interested in joining our Board of Directors are asked to submit an application and resumé to Lori Loseth at lori.loseth@cwcas.ca. An application form and information about the organization can be found on our website at <https://www.cassdg.ca/en/the-society/who-we-are/the-team> or by calling 613-938-5208.

The deadline for applications is Friday, March 12, 2021.
